“ Our great city of Cambridge has lost another community pillar. His commitment to our country, to the citizens of Cambridge, to his kids, his wife and grandkids was second to none. RIP Mr P. You had an amazing journey and it's time for you to kick back and relax. Some day we will all be together again!

“ Bill was one of my very favorite people at Muskingum. He had the wisdom of someone who'd worked hard in a variety of roles his whole life combined with the energy and enthusiasm of a twenty-year old. He had an incredible impact on my career - introducing me to a contact of his at the Muskingum Soil and Water Conservation District back in 2005, and that collaboration is still going strong to this day. His commitment to the University and to our students has always been strong, with Bill showing unending patience training students to be safe and accurate in their lab duties. He was one of a kind, and will be sorely missed.

“ Bill was a hard-working, meticulous chemistry lab coordinator. He liked things to be carefully organized. Bill was gentle, kind and happy. I was always fascinated by his healthy sardines that he ate for lunch on most days. I suspect that Bill liked just about everybody. He will be missed.

“ I remember Bill as an excellent runner who was named an All AMERICAN Senior; I remember Bills as a worker in College Drive's afterschool program where he did challenging and amazing crafts with the elementary, Middle School and High School students .I remember Bill as a chemistry lab worker at Muskingum who put in a great deal of effort to make chemistry a great program. I remember Bill and hid wife as active alums at Muskingum. I enjoyed our conversations and his smiling face and I will miss knowing that he is in the Cambridge New Concord area.
