

Aghdas Ghanbari Nojedeh

March 12, 1946 - July 13, 2019

Aghdas "Azam" Nosrati, age 73 of Cambridge, passed away on Saturday, July 13, 2019 in Columbus, Ohio. She was born in Tabriz, Iran on March 12, 1946, a daughter of the late Edris Ghanbari - Nojedeh and Kokab Chelopazi. She was one of nine children with most of her family residing in Iran. During her adult years in Iran, Aghdas worked in a hospital in Tehran as a nursing assistant. In the United States, Aghdas was a devoted wife and mother who enjoyed cooking, gardening, singing, dancing, fashion, and the arts. She was a member of the Cambridge Singers, and volunteered throughout the community.

She is preceded in death by: her husband Ahmad Nosrati.

Surviving are: her children, Elika of Seattle, Allen of Washington D.C., and Elaine of Columbus. She is also survived by her step-children, Arya, Aida, Arman, and Vedad.

Services will be held on Saturday, July 27, 2019 at Unity Presbyterian Church at 2 PM. Pastor Jeff Bergeson will officiate with burial to follow in Northwood Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations to go to a lung cancer non-profit organization called Lungevity (<https://lungevity.org>). Aghdas's online guest book may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.

“ Dear family, my heart is with yours' (grieving and yet filled with Thankfulness to our Living God and Jesus for His creation and gift to us. My life was Blessed with Aghdas' Gracious hospitality and friendship through the years of helping her acclamate to life in the U.S. of A., in Cleveland, Ohio years ago through First Baptist Church of Greater Cleveland. She was a beautiful woman and soul every day. I am happy to know God has her and your dad reunited in Heaven and with Jesus. She and he were Blessed with all of you, their children.

My deepest condolence to all the family. How fast time has past it seems like yesterday I was at her wedding with Mr. Nosrati. I was a witness of the hard journey she had coming to the US. She was a great mother who loved her children. God Bless her soul. Rest in Peace. Khoda Rahmatat Koneh Azam Joon.
