“ Words really can't express how much Eileen meant to both of us or how much we miss her. At the same time, it's wonderful to know that, after enduring more grief than any one person should be called to bear and to do it with such grace, the pain is gone and she is in the presence of our Heavenly Father and reunited with the ones she lost. We are so very grateful for the way she truly blessed our lives.

“ Eileen and I were friends from grade school. She and I did a lot of church events together, going away to summer camps and singing in the choir. When she and Craig were first married, we were neighbors in Bloomfield. She was generous with her time in playing music at our church and for many others in the Cambridge area. Through all her sorrows, she kept her faith and exhibited kindness to others. Rest in peace, dear friend. Laura Mae Williams Bates
