“ Kathy,
I am so sorry for your loss. Losing one's mother is so very difficult no matter our ages. I enjoyed knowing your mom and working with her while she was at the nursing home. I wish you peace and comfort during this difficult time.

Kathy,

I am so sorry to just learn of your mother's passing. I am no longer receiving the Daily Jeffersonian and have not kept up with checking the death notices on-line. I took too long of a nap on Wednesday and did not make it to Bible study, so I am very sorry that I did not know earlier.

Of course you know that I never met your mother, but she must have been a wonderful person to have raised such a faithful Christian daughter like you. Your devotion to her was a wonderful demonstration of your love for her. I know this is a tremendous loss for you and will be a major life change. If I can be of help to you in any way, I would be willing to do whatever you need.

You have my sincere sympathy and prayers.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I will miss seeing your mom at the nursing home. It always made my day even better when I would see her and will always remember the pretty hats she wore. I pray that God will give you peace and comfort through this time of great loss.
