“ Memories of our parents singing and playing music, the laughter, the Rook games have come to mind often. My Mom still has tapes of the music stretched out by overplaying. I hope today goes well and that somewhere in the background you can hear Audrey playing for the angel choirs. Such a blessed gift that she was given and shared and shared and shared.

“ Audrey was such a beautiful lady - inside and out! She had a wonderful way to make music flow and I asked her to play at our wedding. It is still a treat to listen to the 'tapes' of that beautiful event. She was so kind to my Mother (Thelma Olden) when they lived in the same apartment complex after Dad passed. She was so easy to talk to and so vibrant. I am sure her presence will be missed here, but it will be joy to see her again some day.
