Tribute Wall

“ *Dear Kenny Ray, Philip and families:
I worked with your mom many years ago (1981) and became good friends with her, staying in touch each year through Christmas cards and letters as I moved around the country. I absolutely loved your mom and thought she was one of the dearest, kindest ladies I was blessed to call my friend. I am so very sorry for your loss! My sister lives in the Cambridge area and just sent me your wonderful mom's obituary. Your mom was so proud of you both, and your families - she gave me updates each year in her long letters, and I loved hearing about all of you. Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers at this very sad time.
Blessings and Sympathy,
Kim Richmond and family*

“ Belca and Kenny were great friends of my mom and dad, Jean and Walt Thatcher and I will forever remember them playing Rook, preparing for an ice cream social and Belva's organ and piano playing at church. To K R and Phillip, or Flip as my Dad called him, know that your mom was a great lady and was loved by many. Aloha nui loa and thanks for the memories.
