Betsy Cook was an angel on earth. She was a best friend to my mother Ruby Neil who Betsy called "mom."

I considered myself her honorary sister. She survived the deaths of her son and husband within a week of each other with grace and her deep faith in God. She was resilient. Determined, she bumped along on her riding mower to mow her property no matter how many hours or days it took. Her voice was always one of love and support. I am missing her
