“ Diane and Gary:

My Condolences; sometimes I pass through here looking at connections to the past. Your family is a connection and still held in my high esteem. Diane, you were always a good friend and Gary I recently saw your name on my son's mail.... time passes so fast... you were always Diane's very little brother.

Just felt the need to give my Regards and Thank Bill for selling me that Honda 160 and for your wonderful Mother for making you possible! Hope to meet you both again sometime.... I still make it down often.

*Regards,

“ I got to meet this very nice lady when i became her aide at Meridian at Cambridge.... such a beautiful woman ..so pleasant and never wanted to be a bother to no-one ... so I would just go in and tell her i just wanted to say hello and oh! that smile of her's would make my day... al though i didn't get to care for her long ... I really liked her.

“ My favorite memory of grandma is Brittney and I staying at the camper in the summertime when we were little. Grandma would float in the lake on her raft while we would swim. We had so many great times camping with her. She loved the camper and her family.
I'm gonna miss her so much. RIP grandma. I know your in heaven holding Grandpas hand and watching over us. Give him a kiss for me. XOXO
