“ *Betty always made me feel welcome and loved whenever Norris and I would visit and cooked us many wonderful meals over the year. As the last living aunt we tried to visit more often and we will miss her twinkling eyes and no nonsense outlook on life. We love you Betty, and know you're laughing at all of us from up in heaven. Rest in peace, Aunt Betty. You were like a second mother to my brothers and I growing up. You had the biggest heart of anyone I know. My brothers and I have wonderful, special memories of you growing up and we were blessed to have you as our Aunt. You are now wrapped in the arms of God and being reunited with Mamaw, Dadall, your brother (our dad) and your sister (Aunt Bonnie). We will miss visiting you, your stories, your humor, but you will always be with us. I love you.

Your Neice, Rose
