“ I met Betty a very long time ago when I accompanied her daughter Sharon a few times to her home for family gatherings. Betty was a very sweet loving person and made me feel like I was so welcome. I remember the big hugs as I was leaving. She was surrounded by family that she loved dearly and they were all just as adoring of her. I haven't seen her for many years but no matter what trials and pain she has endured she has been well cared for by her children who are selfless loving people who made these last several years as comfortable as possible for her. So very sorry for your loss. RIP Betty
