“ Betty was such a lovely lady, grew up in church with her. And always enjoyed seeing her out and about. Last time I saw her was a few years back, walking out at Northwood with her son. Prayers for the family.

“ Merilee, Nancy, and Mark. We had a lot of fun at the Slay household. She was a kind hearted, wonderful, lady. A good Christian lady, as was your Dad. Hard to believe she was 93. It seems like yesterday when we gathered at the Slay house when John David was home. they always had a pot of coffee on or not, they would put one on.
I am sad because those days are gone. You always had an open invitation to stop by.
God Bless all of you and my sympathies and prayers are with you.
