“ Bill, I would like to express my sincere condolences on Betty’s recent passing. I also send Julie’s and my thoughts and prayers to you and your family at this difficult time.

Although I was not really close to Betty, on the half dozen or so occasions that I spent time in her company over the years, I did come to realize her kindness and compassion towards those less fortunate than her. And I do know that she was very highly respected throughout the Cambridge community and in her profession; and how her good works changed the lives of many. You were truly fortunate to have such a woman in your life.

As you may know, it was not that long ago that my youngest brother John passed away, so I have some idea of what you and your family are going through. No comfort is quite enough to replace the loss.

Please pass my deepest sympathies on to her brothers, and sisters, and to all of your grandchildren and great grandchildren.

“ Betty was an inspiration to her family and many friends. The measure of a life well-lived is not how much money one has, or what possessions they accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. Betty was a life well-lived and she will be missed by many.
