“ While I did not have the chance to know Brenda deeply, I just wanted to share this memory of how she touched others in everything she did. I work at Nothing But Chocolate and Brenda would come in to get her favorite Rice Kris pie Treats at least once a month. I loved talking to her and seeing her beautiful smile - it made my day as I know she did for many others.

“ Brenda was an aunt, sister & friend to my family & me. My favorite memories are times we spent with her at her home & ours. She had the kindest heart & was always there to help friends & family. I will miss her so very much, especially during the times of year we would always try & get together.

Brenda was a graduate of the 1962 class at Keokee High School, Keokee, Virginia where I met her in eighth grade. She was a good friend and always had a smile for everyone. She was one of the kindest persons I have ever known.
