“ Bruce was an avid and I dare say a genius level Free cell player... it's a computer game that has been included with just about every Microsoft operating system.. Bruce had a running log of all of his completed games... if he got stuck he didn't completely give up he wrote it in his book and moved on. Every once in a while he would go back and try again and many times solve it and added a check mark. Heavy Father has added a check mark beside Bruces name and I'm sad his mortal life is over but I have comfort in knowing I'll see him again. Love the Ady family with all my heart.
