“ I was so very sorry to hear of Aunt Lucille's passing. She was a beautiful woman in every sense of the word. I remember her as gracious, elegant, refined and loving. She, like each of her siblings, had a strong commitment to family and preserving the memories of her parents and cherished siblings that had gone before her. I applaud all of the family that cared for her so lovingly over the last few years. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
