“ To Carl's family and friends: I only knew Carl casually; would see him here or there, but always found him to be a friendly, courteous, and gentlemanly man. I will miss him, as i am sure many, many others will also. Please accept my sincere sympathy on your loss.

“ Sweet, gentle Carl was a dear friend who would always made one feel special by listening to your thoughts and then sharing his wonderful wisdom through humor and gentle advice. I will cherish my time with Carl and his wife, Betty, as neighbors on Bass Lane and beyond. He and my Dad, Papa Joe, would sit on the front deck and solve the problems of the world ... such a special relationship. I'm so grateful for Carl's friendship as I'm a better person because of knowing him. May God's peace and comfort be with his wonderful family.
