“ Kay

I was so sorry to hear about the death of your Mother. I have such fond memories of her from when we were in high school. She was so nice to all of us whenever we stayed at your house and I always thought she was so pretty! She raised a wonderful family and I know you loved her very much. Greg and I have both lost parents and we know how hard it is to let them go but I was happy to read that she was able to be home with all of you there. I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

Take care Beth

“ I join with so many others who knew Carol in offering my deepest sympathy on her passing. Although it is little consolation at this sad time, it should be of some satisfaction to know that in her passing you can celebrate the end of a very productive life. Carol was a friend to all, always more concerned how you were then, herself. we would catch up on how our kids, and grandkids were doing when I would see her at Wal-Mart.

The measure of a life well-lived is not in how much money one has or what possessions they have accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. If the outpouring of sympathy on her loss is any indication, and it most certainly is, you can proudly and confidently say that Carol indeed was a life well-lived.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that her loss is felt by all who knew and loved her.

In Sympathy,

Mary Stoner##imported-begin##Mary Stoner##imported-end##

“ I will miss Carol dearly, she always had some kind of advice to give me to help me through life. I will miss all of our card playing and bingo days we've shared for many years. Even though I barely knew her family much, I could tell you sooo many stories about them because there wasn't a day that went by that she didn't have a story or picture or something to say about them, and it was all good because she was so proud of each and everyone of them. I'm so sorry for your loss. We will all miss you Carol. Your buddy,

“ I want to give my condolences to the family of Carol Froehlich. May Jesus place his loving arms around the entire family to comfort you in your time of sorrow. Carol was such a loving person and it was an honor to work with Carol for several years @ Cambridge Developmental Center. I also enjoyed her smiling face when I came into Walmart. She will always be sadly missed within my heart. May God bless the entire family. May she rest in peace to meet our maker. “ Dear Family,

You have my deepest sympathy for your loss of a wonderful mother, grandmother, and companion. I remember being in high school and the Froelich home was my second home for a while. Carol was right in the middle enjoying every minute. What a joy to still see her when she worked at WalMart. She will never be forgotten. We'll see her and Kim again some day. My prayers are with your family for your loss.##imported-begin##Kathy ##imported-end##

“ Ken Froehlich & Family

Heartfelt sympathy and much love to you, dear friend and your family as you go through this time of grief. There isn't much one can say to ease your sence of loss, but I want you to know my thoughts and prayers are w/ you and your family in this time of sarrow.

When my father died eight years ago, I felt the bottom had dropped out of my world, too. But there's nowhere to go but up from the depths of despair, and, little by little, you'll find that time begins to heal your grief. Please accept my deepest sympathy.

*Your Friend,

ps: This past summer I had the pleasure of meeting Carol for the first time. Carol and I talked for a couple hours about many things but mostly family stuff. To make a long story short, she went on and on about how proud she was of her loving family members and shared those special memories with me. She was a very kind lady.##imported-begin##ROG BIRCH##imported-end##

“ To Carol's Family, I'm really sorry to hear about your loss. There is a scripture that gives me so much comfort it's in 1 Peter 5:7 “throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you.” So it shows Jehovah God cares for you and what you're going through right now. Carol was a very caring lady, and she loved her family. She will be missed.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time. My mom and grandma played Bingo with Carol for years at St Benedicts. My husband and myself then worked with her at Wal-Mart. She was a wonderful lady. Always smiling and so friendly to everyone. She will be missed.
