“ Our niece, Carol, was such a wonderful person. She shared her smiles and warm personality with all who knew her. She inspired courage in others as they watched her long battle with illness. No one who knew her will ever forget her. She was loved myk many. Family was very important to her and her loving daughter and grandchildren were the delight of her life.

She had the good fortune to be a talented artist and she loved animals, especially horses.

She won many blue ribbons as she competed in that attest to her expertise.

Carol wanted to be with her family at home during her very brave and final battle with illness and her mother, Peggy Price, and Carol's daughter, Danielle, and her family are to be commended for the excellent and loving care she was given.

Saying goodbye to our niece is difficult but she is out of pain and at peace. We will keep her mother and her loving family close to our hearts and in our prayers. May the memories of the good times sustain us. Aunt Sally and Uncle John “ Carol leaves behind a legacy of strong, independent, and compassionate women. All of those girls that she took under her wing, teaching through example, will remember her with love. It was truly an honor to be around her. Her infectious laugh and her quick wit were always welcome. She taught me more about horses and cats and self sustainability than anyone I have ever known as for that I will always be so grateful. I'm certain when I get to heaven, she will be bringing in the herd to meet me.. Prayers of comfort to Danielle, Sidney and Will, Love you Forever..

“ Cousin Carol ever since I was a kid I admired your love for animals. Remembering the Siamese cat you brought to NH & the puppy you brought to uncle Bus's. I will miss the time we spent on the couch watching YouTube videos of horses & talking horses when we were together. You will always be in my heart.

“ Our prayers and sympathies to Peggy, Danielle, Sidney and William...

What I remember about Carol, her wonderful dry humor...I still chuckle at some of the things she would say. Her humor was so like her Dad's.

Her art work!!! I'll never forget the large pastel drawing of the Arabian horse with monarch butterfly wings, so beautiful. Her pencil drawings and woodburnings on gourds, the detail! Her creativity was in everything she did. She was so very creative and my heart thrills for her at the thought that, as an artist entering the presence of the Master Creator and the glories she sees right now, beyond description!

And yet my heart aches so for family who will miss her terribly.

You have been and will continually be in our prayers.

Love, Debbie and Doug Snode
