“ Carol Jean was my only cousin on the Thompson side of the family. I was always in awe of her musicianship. It was a joy listening to her play the piano and organ, or hear one of her choirs sing. She saw her long career of church music director as a mission of high calling, and I know God has welcomed her into the Heavenly Music Realm. Carol, we loved you, we'll miss you, and the world is a better place because you were in it.

“ Carol and I sang together in Teen Trio. Fond memories. The last time that I talked to her was many years ago at the local hospital. My Mother was a patient and Carol's daughter had just given birth. I heard the announcement over the p.a. system and tracked her down in the gift shop. Rest in peace, friend. Sue (Patterson) Oiler

“ My heartfelt condolences to Wayne and the family. Carol Thompson Fairchild was a best friend to me in high school at CHS 1958-1961. She accompanied me on piano as I played marimba at district and state contests. Carol also played piano in the Geary Larrick Quintet for a Variety Show directed by Professor Ray Eubanks. Carol's husband Wayne is also a good friend, as I played trumpet beside his father in the Cambridge City Band for three years. The last time that I saw Wayne and Carol was at City Park on July 4, 1995, when I was a snare drum featured performer with the Cambridge City Band that was then directed by Dr. Berk Jones, encompassing my daughter Sulina and my wife Lydia also in the audience. Condolences and best wishes to the family in this time of sorrow.
