“ I will remember Carol fondly from our contact at a local antique mall. She and Ben were always friendly and willing to share their knowledge and Carol gave me glimpses into my parents younger days. My mother, Marylou, was Carol's 'favorite Sunday School teacher' she often told me and she frequently remarked how my father kept a fastidious lawn but with to many ornaments! I enjoyed her candor and witty remarks as she shared a smile with me. I will miss her and my mother asked me to share her sorrow as well at Carols passing. To Ben and the extended family, our sincere sympathy. Today is very sad, but smiles and happy memories will pull you through with time. Mrs. Charles R. Patterson and son Gary.
