“ I'm Sorry I cannot make it to the service due to a snow storm that is coming in But, I want to celebrate the life of this beautiful woman I call my grandma she was such a wonderful kind hearted person and was so loved. Me and my sisters have beautiful memories with her she always takes us out to eat and plan pool days and picnics and she loved her church so much and when I was little she would always sing to me before bed time when I lived with her. I would say the love my grandma had for us three girls was so strong and she did everything she could to keep the family together. She was the most amazing person and I believe she was my guardian angel when I was a baby and still is. To both of my sisters I know this day is hard for all of us to say goodbye to the woman we love so much but she will always be remembered through us and everyone that is here today. Our grandma taught us that family is everything and made sure us girls had the best and possible life we can have and she also always look out for her granddaughters she believe that she was just a grandmother but honestly she was much more to me and my sisters and this is why grieving such a hard loss of a beautiful soul just hurts but I wanted to make sure I honor her and her life. Grandma now you gain your gorgeous wings I know you and both grandpas are watching over all of us. I will always honor you and hold you close to my heart God I know you take care of my grandma and Joe. And I also know God will help all of us the family that is grieving grandma carol today. I love you bunches Angel and you are so missed love your granddaughter Erica
