“ To Carolyn's Family, So very sorry about the death of your Mother. I have know Carolyn for many years as we are the same age and went to school together. I also lived on the Southside. We worked together on the first Garfield Reunion, and she was a wonderful lady. May God watch over each of you and keep you in his care.

“ Grandma, you were my best friend, my cheerleader, my role model, my shoulder to cry on and someone to laugh with, you were my everything. I called you every single day, numerous times and it is just not the same not talking to you on my way to work and school. I miss you so much but I'm so happy your no longer in pain. You will always be remembered and our memories will always be treasured by me. I will make you proud of me and do all the things I promised I would do. I know you gave grandpa and my mom a big hug for me like you promised and I can rest assured you are happy with them now. I love you so much and and will never stop <3

“ *Sister,
I will so miss all of the laughs we had but know you will be sharing the same with the other people you love. Didn't have the opportunity to know you long but I got a pound or so of fluff out of the ice cream we ate. I love ya, sister and will always have the good memories that we shared. To the children, you know your Mom loved you and never wanted to be a burden to you. Braedon, you brought so many delightful days to your Grandmother. Courtney, Grandma was so proud of your independence. My love to you all. Aunt Molly.*
