“ I am so sadden by the passing of a great person. Bob was my bus driver back in the middle 60's. My sisters and I had never had to ride a bus to school before and Bob made it nice for us first timers. As I got older Bob never forgot who I was, every time he saw me in Cambridge he would make sure he said "Hi" and was always asking how everyone was in my family. Back in 1981 or so I too ended up driving that same bus route that Bob had drove. I know it isn't easy to lose a loved one, but to lose a special man like Bob will be felt through-out the community. “ Dear family and friends of Bob Chambers,

We are sending condolences and our deepest sympathies from Texas. I went to school at Plainfield with Bob, a few years behind him in the Class of '51. Remember him and all the others from the Kimbolton area. Good to see our friend and Pastor, Reverend Paul, assisting the family.

Our deepest sympathy and condolences,
