“ Well. On the 28th 9f this month, you will have been gone 14 years. 14 years without my mother. The day that you left, was the day i lost my mother too. We fell out grams, i know it aint right, i know u would be pissed if you seen half of the fighting we do. She just wont stop. She likes dating my ex boyfriends, and hanging out with my old friends, u always said she was jealous of me i just didnt see it till i was grown. It sickens me. I wish you were here, u would know exactally what to do, and what to say. You were good like that. Over the years tears have slowly stopped falling, but the pain of losing you is still just as raw. I cant even say ur name without havin a big lump in my throat about to cry. You were what we all needed in life. I love you, so much. Im praying ill see you again someday, just keep watching over me pretty lady, help me continue to be a good mom and wife. I miss you grams. Xoxo

“ To the family;
May God bless you and bring you peace and comfort at this difficult time. I am truly sorry that I never got a chance to know her, as I hear that she was a very loving and giving person and I know that my Mother as well as others remember her very fondly.. My prayers are with you. xoxo##imported-begin##Christina Mattox Nichols##imported-end##

“ To the Family: My Husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. It is so difficult to lose someone we love. I lost my father and what got me through this difficult time was God's hope for our loved ones. Rev 21: 3&4 says that soon God will do away with pain, suffering and death. Then what is written at John 5: 28, 29 will take place. It says there is going to be a resurrection. During this time, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again. I have often found comfort from reflecting on God's word and sincerely hope these thoughts will bring comfort and hope to your family. ##imported-begin##Adriane##imported-end##
