“ Rick, I was so sorry to hear about your mother. She was a special friend to me at Colgate; I'm sure many people feel the same way. She was kind, generous, considerate. Many who worked with her treasured her. She will be missed. Quentin's and my thoughts go with you and hope that they comfort you.

“ Chrissie and I first met at RCA, then at NCR. She was a sweet person and a dedicated worker. She and I always felt we were related somehow, from 'way back then' because my maiden name was Burris, but my father's family always lived in the Cambridge OH area. I am so sorry for your loss; I know she will be missed by her family and friends.

What a lovely photo of her. My sympathies to all of you, her family. God be near to all of you for your comfort and peace. My deepest sympathies, Mary Burris Jackson
