“ 7 years ago, I contacted Chris and Cheryl to set up an appointment for my oldest daughter’s 3 month photos. Little did I know then that they would become more than just our photographers. Chris was an artist, a wonderful friend, and my 3 kids’ “bonus grandfather”. My children always looked forward to a trip to Chris and Cheryl’s home and we often stayed long periods of time after photographing just to catch up. We will really miss hearing “hey, squirt!” when the kids would walk through the door. There were lots of laughs and hugs between us all over the years and we are truly blessed to have known Chris. Chris, thank you for being our friend and for capturing so many beautiful memories of our children. You will forever be in our hearts.

“ We first met Chris through his photography business for our daughter’s graduation pictures. He was very friendly and full of life. He was always professional and easy going I’m sure he made a good impact in everyone’s life that he come across. Such a tragedy to lose a good person so young.
