“ I was a young girl when I married your youngest son. I did not have a dad. You took me in as your own and you were always there for me I loved you as much as a daughter loves her dad. Words can't describe the pain that Duane and I feel about you leaving us. But I know that god will take care of you now and your pain and suffering will be know more. Thankyou dad for always putting your family first, loving all of us no matter what, and always being there for us. I love you and I will miss you dearly! Tanya

“ Thanks Clyde for your Military Service you will be sorely missed by family and friends. I never had the pleasure of meeting you, but through your daughter Donna and your wife Eileen I got to know you. Rest In Peace you have earned those wings and I have no doubt that you are again whole and watching over your family, your friends. My deepest sympathy. D. Bates
