

Connie Lou Bloom

December 13, 1946 - August 14, 2019

Connie Lou Bloom, age 72, of Guernsey County, Ohio passed away peacefully in her sleep at home on Wednesday, August 14. She was born in Tacoma, Washington on December 13, 1946 to the late Samuel D. Jamison and Arlaine (Nehser) Leicht. Connie graduated from Sumner High School in Sumner, Washington in 1966. Shortly thereafter, while at a local Tacoma roller skating rink, she was blessed to meet the love of her life, young army veteran Irvin W. Bloom of Tuscarawas County, Ohio. A few months later, on February 17, 1967, they tied the knot at the Nazarene Church of Puyallup, Washington. From that day on, they were like two peas of the same pod, always together in support of each another.

Over the years, they built a thriving hand-made ceramic business in which, because of Connie's masterful artistry and steady hand, sold countless pieces across the country, with some even showcased in a store in Beverly Hills, California. Her talents also extended to the kitchen, making delicious items that were highly sought after at local festivals and during the holidays, with one of her most noted being her Butt Salad—an oddly pungent concoction that became a famous treat for many, and for some, a bit more infamous one. However, as talented as she was, her greatest pride was giving birth to her children. A devoted mother, Connie enjoyed spending time outdoors with her family, especially camping, fishing, clam digging, or just traveling the country. These educational adventures with her children eventually evolved into her becoming a Brownie Troop Leader, serving as an important mentor for young girls in her community.

Connie is survived by her loving husband of 52 years, Irvin W. Bloom, her four children Kimberly, Shawn, Daniel, and Heather, as well as eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Her love, humor, and laughter will be greatly missed by all that knew her.

Calling hours will be on Thursday, August 22nd from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at Bundy Law Funeral Home in Cambridge, Ohio. A Celebration of Life service will begin at 6:00 p.m. with pastor Clayton H. Coffey officiating. Connie's online tribute page/guest book wall may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.

“ Connie was the light of any room she entered! Every time she would visit or we went to her place, you knew it was FUN! Connie was fun and full of laughter; an amazing trait! She was a fabulous cook and full of adventure.

She was thoughtful, kind, gentle and most notorious for being a genuine, down to earth person.

Glad I had her for a sister.....

Connie will be greatly missed!

“ TIME

*It's one of those things we think so little of except when we reflect on those we love
all too often thinking we'll have more only to find so little of life was left in store.*

So, for all who knew Connie and loved her so much let not her passing be a cause for sorrow or longing for her touch but rather an inspirational reminder of how to love and care to live life to its fullest and not despair or compare to help one another as sister and brother so that one day we may find her love of life in each other.

*Now then, smile and go forth as God would intend knowing the blessed memory of Connie will surely mend
each heavy heart that misses her so—like mine
and always appreciate that precious gift called time.*

In Loving Memory,

Jack Eldon Jackson (Son-in-Law)

“ I only knew Connie for a short time in my life. The mid 1980's I spent alot of time at the Bloom residents. My foundest memory was at Christmas time, 1987 though I wasn't a member of the family Connie was kind enough to to make sure there were Christmas presents under the tree for me Christmas morning. That ment so much to me, that I felt like one of the family. A very Nice and Sweet person, she will be missed by many. RIP 💔.

“ My beautiful, eccentric, loving Mother,

I have learned more about you this past week than ever before. Although losing you has been the most difficult challenge ever endured, I will celebrate your life through the memories and love we shared. Never will I forget your talent, strength, nor your quirkiness. You made this world a better place; you made me a better woman with your constant love and support. I am proud to call you Mom. Always will you be on my mind and forever in my heart.

*Love,
Heather*

“ I WILL MISS YOU MOM

*If I could have one wish,
it would be for you and I to spend,
another day of recalling fond memories
that would never end.*

*To hear and see your laughter
and listen to what you have to say, knowing a final farewell
was on the way.*

*And every moment
before the end of the night,
I'd make sure to tell you I love you,
hold and hug you tight.*

*I do understand we cannot live forever
and this is the way, Yet it doesn't change the fact that I have so much more to say.*

*Deep down I know you loved me
and that wipes away my tears,
So you will always be in my heart
for all my remaining years.*

*Your Loving Son,
Shawn*
