“ I was very sad to hear of Cindy's passing. I am sorry that I didn't know about it until after the funeral. Cindy was a very kind and caring person. She was always concerned about the well-being of others. Since we haven't worked together in several years I didn't see her as often, but could always count on that bright smile when we did meet. My heartfelt sympathy to you her family for the loss. I am glad Cindy is at peace and will no longer be in pain. God Bless all of you. Kathy McLeish, F&CF Coordinator

“ Cindy was my secretary during my tenure as Student Senate President 1979-1980. No matter how dark the hour or difficult the task, Cindy always made us smile and realize that it wasn't so bad. She was a kind and thoughtful person, that will be missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Kevin A. Williams

“ I also knew Cindy through the Ohio Family and Children First Initiative back in the 1990's. We often joked about sharing the same first name, and how handy that was if we needed backup! I loved Cindy's sense of humor, and she was as true an advocate as could be. So many children and families benefited from knowing her. My heart goes out to her family and friends. Cindy Oser

“ I had the honor of working with Cindy through the state Ohio Family and Children First initiative. She was a true advocate for children and families. She was highly regarded and respected for the work she did in the service of Ohio's families and children. Please know she she had a positive impact on many lives, including mine. I am blessed to have known her.

“ I meet Cindy while completing my MSW in 2006 as she was my supervisor for my internship. What a great mentor I found to spend the next 9 months with! And then I found a friend for a lifetime! We became the movie "Driving Miss Daisy" as I often drove us around when she was not having a good health day.

*Miss Daisy, until we meet again in heavens blue sky for a drive RIP!

“ I worked with Cindy at Ohio Family and Children First for 11 years. Over these years, I saw time and time again, her loving and compassionate spirit in action. She was always prompt in helping anyone in need, was an incredible listener and always willing to go the extra mile for another person. She had a huge heart and a great sense of humor. She could make you laugh when laughter was needed the most. My life has been blessed by knowing her. I will miss her. My heartfelt sympathies to her loving family. You all meant the world to her!

“ Cindy was a true advocate for children and families. We worked together as partners in developing the Ohio Early Start program and then Help Me Grow. Cindy made sure we kept the families at the center of everything we did. She will be truly missed. My prayers are with her family. May God be with you.

“ Cindy touched so many lives. We renewed our friendship from high school a few years ago on Facebook. Her messages of love and comfort meant so much while I was dealing with my mother's illness and death this past January. My heart goes out to all of Cindy's family and other friends.

“ I am truly shocked and saddened by the loss of such a dear friend. I worked with Cindy for many years when we were both with Ohio Family and Children First. When you worked with Cindy, she would reach out to include you in her large circle of friends. There was never a time that was too late at night or when she was too busy to make time for a friend who needed her. Cindy was always such a caring and giving person who stepped up to help anyone in need without a second thought. I remember Cindy's unwavering passion for helping kids and their families. She was an Angel while she lived on this earth, so I know that she is now an Angel in Heaven watching over all those she loved and cared for in life...and all those in need of her loving care who were not able to know her in life. Rest in peace, dear Cindy, and know that you will always be remembered.

“ Cindy and I started working for Ohio Family and Children First on the same day and she is one of the best friends a person could ever have. She "wore her heart on her shirt sleeve." We have laughed and cried many tears together. She was there for me and my family when my son Matt passed away in late 2009. She asked for an old sweatshirt of his, so that she could have a teddy bear made out of it for my daughter Macy. We've had to repair holes in it, but Macy takes it everywhere with her. It has spent the last three years with her at Ohio University. Cindy dearly loved her family and spoke lovingly and proudly of them always. It was an honor to call her friend and she will be forever remembered and missed.

“ Ohio's kids, their families and the neighborhoods they live are far better because of Cindy. There are people who come into our lives whose purpose it is to change our lives for the better. Sometimes we call them friends, most times we call them angels, and Cindy was one of God's special angels. Rest safely in the loving arms of God! Until we meet again.

“ My Dear Cindy Bear... When I heard the news it just did not register...how could My Dear friend pass on . What hurts most is that I didn't get to say goodbye. On earth you definitely earned your wings. You had sooo many trials and tribulations With God getting you through each and everyone. You helped sooo many children and adults through your work .your compassion speaks for itself. You helped me get through my breast cancer journey And robs heart surgery. I will never forget Your kindnesses to my family. We had so many good times at Ohio university as my College roommate. I will miss you terribly sweetie :(Until we meet again at heavens gate.. Dance with the angels ... I love you "Your Slifko always"

“ I met Cindy in 1991 when she came to my work as a temp before she got back in with the State. We hit it off immediately, had many laughs together, then reconnected on facebook, and then joined Weight Watchers a couple of years ago about the same time. Even though she had so many medical problems, she could still laugh about it and always thought of others. She was a friend that you could not see for months, then pick up where you left off, I'm so shocked that she's gone, I pray for her family and she will be missed by many.

“ My heart is heavy at the loss of my very dear friend. Cindy loved her family and friends in a way that few can understand. She was the most kind and giving person that I have ever had the pleasure to know. She will be happy to be with her Dad again and she will be watching over us all. My sincere condolences go out to the entire family. We often wonder what our loved ones like of us, really. Yvonne and Liz, I can tell you that never has a daughter and sister loved and praised anyone the way she did the two of you. Go well with God my dear dear friend. I will always treasure the good times that we had and forever regret the times that are now not to be. I will miss you the rest of my life.
