“ Deepest Sympathy Denise and Ken and family, Daisy was such a nice, sweet person. She taught me how to knit. She had so much patience. Believe me she got lots of calls, but always had time to explain what I needed to do to fix my problem. Heaven gained a great lady.

“ I remember spending the night at your house many times in our high school years. I did not remember this until she reminded me, years later...I use to tell her in the mornings how many times someone used the bathroom at night and she asked me how I knew and I told her because of the squeaky toilet paper holder! We laughed about that all the time. What a sweet lady, she will be missed by many. Love you all
