“ You will be truly missed. You brought love and peace into this family with your kind heart and gentle smile. This family is blessed to have had you in it. I just wish you could have been with us longer. And you know you were a 2nd father to Larry and he loved you very much. You'll always be in our hearts and you've made us better people for having had you with us.

Sending thoughts and prayers to Dick and family. I am sad that life got in the way of us keeping in better touch as adults, but we certainly had a lot of good times growing up with your mom and my dad and the pranks they would play. I remember David bringing me a scarf from Viet Nam. I always loved his smile and never really realized until I saw this picture how much he resembled your mom and Grandpa Johnson.
