“ Uncle Dave will be missed dearly. I'm sending prayers out to his family and friends. Dave taught me how to water ski. We would always go out in the boat. Also, I will be praying for comfort and “ Dave you were a special kind of a friend. We shared alot along the way. I will treasure so many unforgettable memories of so many crazy things from softball, volleyball, card parties, mud volleyball, white water rafting, dressing up like Dave on his birthday, deer creek, concerts, boating at Salt fork the list could go on and on. We definitely had some fun times. I will sadly miss you my friend, you definitely had a way of telling it like you saw it and never sugar coated any thing.....lol those who really knew Dave know what I mean.

You are at peace now my brother. I will forever hold our friendship as a treasure.

To Dave Kirk may we always keep his memory alive.

Angie and Misty my sincere condolences on the passing of your father.
