“ I just heard yesterday about Dave’s passing. I have so many great memories of both Dave and Mary. My late husband, Larry, worked for Dave at the gas station for many years—during high school and college—and we spent many fun evenings at their house. Dave was also in our wedding. I believe that he and Larry are in heaven now, talking and laughing about old times.

“ Phil and Betsy, I so loved your dad and mom, always ready to laugh and tell a joke. I'm thinking of the times when the brothers and sisters and their spouses, sitting around the kitchen table, laughing and telling funny stories while playing cards, smoking a cigarett and nursing a beer. O the good memories
