“ I can't begin adequately to tell you, Harriett, how very pleased I was, last August at our 60th reunion of the CHS class of 1957, to spend some time with you and Dave. I learned then how Dave had endured several years of harsh illness, but, through it all, demonstrated great courage and faith. We shared some stories of how boys grew into young men in Cambridge in the 1950s and enjoyed remembering happy days from that era. Of course, those days included almost daily trips out to the "Mecca" for a Pizza Burger. So sorry now to learn of Dave's passing, but I promise you my prayers for you, your children and grand-children.

“ Dave, you and I met 65 years ago in 7th grade at Brown Jr. High. Little did I realize it was the beginning of a life long connection. Time and life has separated us over the years but our Jr. High friendship has endured. I'll always remember you as one never to be out hustled. You've sold everyone everything from cars and candy to chilli and pizza burgers. My favorite memory as kids is running the Elk's New Year's Eve coat concession with you and picking up a few welcome tips in the process. Now old friend it's time to rest and if our Maker looks as favorably upon me as I'm sure He will upon you, we'll meet again!
