Obituary

Debi J. Burnette

May 28, 1962 – May 7, 2024

Debi J. Burnette went to be with her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, May 7, 2024, surrounded by her family. She was born to Larry and Carole Paisley on May 28th, 1962 in Cambridge, Ohio. Debi, a devoted wife, mother, sister, proud new grandma, and nurse of over forty years dedicated her life to helping and healing others. She touched thousands of lives throughout her journey, serving others before herself. Debi enjoyed crafting, canning (the best salsa, black raspberry jelly, and spaghetti sauce), being outdoors, being a sports wife and mother, traveling to new destinations, and spending time with her fur babies. She was a devout follower of Christ, serving him through many mission trips as a nurse to Mexico, and was never afraid to share what she believed. Debi is survived by her husband (Jim Burnette of New Concord) her parents (Larry and Carole Paisley of Cambridge), her two sons, Trevor Burnette (Genna) of the Crane, Travis Burnette (Morgan) and granddaughter (Kinsley Raye) of Colorado, her step-daughter Debi L. Johnson (Greg) and grandchildren Madison and Riley of Thornville, her brother Mark Paisley of Cambridge, and her sister, Melissa Vanyek (Jeff) of Phoenix, Arizona. There will be a celebration of life for family and friends at the First Church of the

“ I had the privilege of working with Debi at Genesis. She was an excellent nurse and a great person. She fought so hard and was an amazing role model. I'm so sorry for your family's loss.

“ I was a former radiology instructor of Debi 's when she attended MATC ( now Zane State). Debi was an excellent student not only in the classroom, but also in the clinical setting. She furthered her training by attending Nuclear Medicine school and later on went into nursing. It was obvious early on in her radiology training that she was a go getter who wanted to learn more and increase her skills to enhance her future . For me it is very difficult to hear of a former student's passing. These individuals weren't just students to me, but part of my family. Her passing is a tremendous loss not just for her family, but those who knew her as a student, a co worker, or the many patients she touched over the years.

“ To Debi's family: I am so sorry for your loss. I took several mission trips to Mexico with Debi and she was an absolute joy to be around! She touched many lives with her healing hands, a gentle spirit and lived the gospel. Her positive light will definitely shine down from above.

“ Knowing she likely shared a similar fate, Debi supported my sister Natalie in her last days as she lost her battle with cancer. She visited, prayed for her, brought her food. Her faith never wavered. They had become good friends in their similar journeys. I am blessed to have known her and will miss her more than words can express.
