“ I do dog therapy through Hospice with my dog Beamer. Del was always our favorite stop. We didn't get to know him as well as we would have liked, but loved all his stories, especially of his grandchildren. On our last visit, right before Christmas, he showed me how he tuned his guitar via Alexa, and bragged about how his grandson had adapted his guitar pick. I played a little for him, and he strummed a little for us. He was a special man and I am honored to have had a tiny bit of time with him. I will miss his stories, and Beamer will miss his pets. ❤️🐾
