“Moska, have not seen you for years, but have good memories of being friends whenever our mothers got together. Once in awhile I would run into your mother around town. She was a good friend to mine (Katherine) and they spent many years baking and playing cardclub together. I was surprised and sorry to hear of her passing. God bless her, she lived 86 great years and even had great-great grandchildren, how wonderful. She will be missed.

“Moska, your mother was always very nice to me. I remember eating Oreo cookies and chocolate milk in your apt. My thoughts are with you at this time. Darla Dawn Oliver
