“ Deedee was the best sister and friend a person could ever want. She always told me I was the wind beneath her wings, but no, she was mine. I miss her so much but I`m at peace now knowing she is not suffering anymore. She did not deserve it but never once did she ask "why me?" I love my sister and I will cherish the memories of her. I feel blessed and proud to have her for a sister.##imported-begin##Darlene Miller##imported-end##

“ Dee Dee, It was sad to hear that you passed. But now you are in a better place with no more pain and suffering! I will never forget the fun I had whenever I visited you and you reading my fortune everyday. I didn't get to tell you this but alot of it really happened! I wished I could of gotten to see you before you left this world but I know one day I will see you again! Rejoice with the angels while your body rest peacefully. I love ya and will remember you always! I send my deepest condolences to your family and people that were a part of your life and loved you! May the good Lord wrap his arms around all of you and help you through this rough time! Love, Ella##imported-begin##Ella##imported-end##

“ Tony and Cara,
I am so sorry for your loss of your wife and mother. DeeDee always spoke so lovingly of her family. And to meet her was to become an instant friend. Job 14:15 speaking of the resurrection says God will "have a yearning" for those asleep in death--He'll call and our loved ones will answer. I too yearn to see DeeDee when she will be vibrant, able to breathe and enjoy life, friends and family to the full. Until then, you have my deepest sympathy.
