“ I've been visiting with Don for a while. I started volunteering for Hospice and they gave me Don at first I would visit with Kris and learn what I was supposed to do. After a while I started coming on my own. As time passed I started falling in love with his Spirit. But before I would leave I would pray and say that I love you Don or my brother. I always looked forward to seeing Don I loved it when he would ask if I saw any deer racoons and turkeys. I would play music from the 40s and the 50s. I enjoyed watching him either lip sync to the music and tap his feet when I saw that it just made me happy. Now Don has gone home to stay with all of his family already waiting for him in Heaven. My brother and friend I will surely miss you but I know that you are finally at peace and you have a new and improved body. Remember that my love will never fade but I will remember you.
