“ Christmas 1969, one of our gifts was the tree. Mom & Dad would put the live tree up after we went to bed. Christmas morning was always amazing.
Dad passing presents out, mom bagging up wrapping paper. I started crying because I didn't get a baby doll, I remember Dad looking at mom. Mom went looking, I don't know who found her but mom came back in with baby beans. When Dad got up he is like sis this is yours too. It was a stool- this little stool of mine I use it all the time for things I couldn't reach and lots of things I shouldn't.
