

Doris I. Lloyd

November 26, 1928 - October 13, 2007

Doris I. Lloyd 78, of Cambridge, Ohio passed away Saturday Oct. 13, 2007 at S.E.O.R.M.C.. Doris was born November 26, 1928 in Holiday's Cove, West Virginia to the late Rolley Ellis and Martha Pryor Alloway, also preceding her in death was 2 Brothers: Paul Alloway and Russell Pryor. Doris was a school teacher for 1 year at Madison High School and 43 years at Cambridge High School. Doris graduated with honors from Cambridge High School in 46 and from Muskingum College in 53 where she was active in the Student Council, Kona Club, and Phi Sigma Iota, later she attended graduate courses at Ohio University. During her 44 yrs. as an educator she was able to have a positive influence on thousand of individuals teaching courses in English, Spanish, Secretarial Studies, Business Law, Shorthand, Typing, Keyboarding, Formatting, and Desktop Publishing. She was a member and advisor on numerous committees during her 44 years. Member of various women leadership and business clubs during her working years, including the Cambridge Pilot Club. In her free time she enjoyed reading, designing clothes, and sewing. Doris is survived by her husband Thomas R. Lloyd II, a son Thomas R. Lloyd III, a sister Ruth Ann Price, Nieces Jennifer Price, Vicki Foster, Louise Prescott, and Ellen Attridge, Nephews Jamie Price, John and David Lloyd. Calling hours will be 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 Monday Oct. 15, 2007 with funeral service 1:00 P.M. Tuesday Oct. 16, 2007 at Bundy-Law Funeral Home, Burial in Northwood Cemetery.