“ Deepest sympathy to all of Dorothy's family. She was a wonderful lady and true friend of ours while living in Tower Lakes. I can still see her beautiful smile .

“ *I loved your mom. She found me on Facebook 3 years ago and welcomed me into her home several times to share photos and stories of the old days in East Cambridge. She was my husband Tony's second cousin, and those two had a good talk at Jane Aber's funeral several years ago. She also shared her love for her late husband, church family in Florida and line dancing. I will never forget her and am so grateful to have known this wonderful lady. I will be praying for your comfort and peace as you mourn her loss. In Love and Sympathy,
