“ In "It's A Wonderful Life," we are shown how our lives affect the lives of so many we are unaware of for many years...may we remember that no thought, no feeling goes unnoticed by the Universe...all of us touch many, many lives...and we are all important to what the Universe has planned.

May your Guardian Angels keep vigil with you and give you some comfort. May you be blessed and know that "This Too Shall Pass." Prayers and blessings,

“ Dear Jewett:

I am Jean Carpenter Godwin, widow of Dick Carpenter. Saw Dolly's obituary on line, and had to send you a note. It has been thirteen years, since I lost Dick, so I feel the pain you are enduring now.

You were so influential in making our move to Cambridge, and starting Dick on his journey into the business world. Cherish your memories of Dolly, and be well.

“ I have fond memories of Dolly from my time working for Jewett and Dolly at Richardson's Studio. Dolly had a keen sense of humor and enjoyed playing pranks on all of us. I still remember her sending someone to get a bird brush. After an exhaustive search in Cambridge. We learned that a bird brush was a cheap paint brush.

My prayers and thoughts go out to Jewett and the family.##imported-begin##Mark Fahner##imported-end##

“ I have great childhood memories of Dolly and her family. I remember Dolly's voice and spirited laugh during my mother's bridge parties. I enjoyed stopping by to see her and Jewitt at the Photo studio when I was in junior high. Moments like these remind me how short life is. Peace to Dolly's entire family.##imported-begin##Julia Ashley##imported-end##

“ I am so very sad to learn that Dolly is no longer with us. I just spoke with her on the phone during the Christmas Holidays. I will always remember when we first met at Welcome Wagon Club back around 1970. She introduced herself as a "sexy Presbyterian" with 5 kids.
