“ We had the privilege of being neighbors of Gus and Pat when they lived in New Phila. We often visited with each other and got to know them like they were family. After Pat passed away, Gus still lived here and I would go over to check on him and take him goodies once in awhile. He was such a dear man and a friend to everyone he met. We couldn't have asked for a better neighbor than Gus and he will truly be missed by many. He loved this area because of all the friends he had made and especially all the girls at Drug Mart. Gus will be winding all the clocks in heaven now just to hear them chime. He had a beautiful collection of clocks and they would all go off at the same time. Really unique and beautiful to hear. We extend our sympathy to the family at this time.

Sincerely,
Ken and Louise Hicks

“ I worked at Discount Drug Mart in New Phila and Gus was by far our most cherished customer. We shared many stories of our families over the years. Every year my first Christmas card was always from Gus. I looked forward to him coming in to see us every day. Even after he moved with his daughter Linda, she was so kind to bring him up from Kimbolton to see us! My most cherished memory of Gus was his devotion to his beloved wife. He did everything for her when she fell ill. Never a complaint, only joy that he had the most wonderful wife and he was dedicated to helping her. I had the pleasure of meeting her when my church went to their home and sang Christmas carols. I sure will miss Gus and I will always remember his smile and friendliness to everyone. God bless his family. You have my deepest sympathy in your loss of a wonderful man.

“ I remember when I was growing up, grandpa and I would go out fishing in his boat. We wouldn't catch anything, but I had the best time when it was just he and I. I also remember driving with him many times, and someone would not use their turn signal and he would roll down his window, stick his fist out and give them what for. He was a great person and grandfather! He will always be in my thoughts and I will never forget the time I spent with him!

Love you,

Tommy
