

Edna Alberta Lear

July 11, 1926 - February 9, 2015

Edna Alberta Pattison Lear "Pat", age 88 of Columbus, passed on from her home on Monday, February 9, 2015. She was born on July 11, 1926, daughter of the late William C. Pattison and Edna Pearl (Barnett) Pattison.

Pat graduated from Cambridge High School in 1944 and attended Business College in Columbus, Ohio. Along with being a homemaker, she worked at Curtis Wright, the Department of Motor Vehicles and F & R Lazarus Co. She was always interested in helping others and volunteered at 1st Community Church Trading Post. She had been a member of the 2nd United Presbyterian Church in Cambridge.

Pat wrote "to be a success" under her high school graduation picture - she attained that i.e. a Christian loving wife and mother, homemaker, cook, seamstress, hostess, organizer and decorator. She was always energetic and always ready to share with others.

Pat leaves: her husband Robert E. Lear, whom she married on October 20, 1946; daughter Jacque (Tom) Baughman; brother William L. (Mary Ellen) Pattison; son-in-law Denny Bender; four grandchildren, Eric (Carly) Baughman, Megan (Josh) Kerr, Matthew Bender and Emily Baughman; three great grandchildren, Chloe and Sammy Baughman and Ivy Kerr; nephews, Ed (Joy) Lear, Bill Pattison and Preston (Elise) Pattison; nieces Shan (Dale) Darling, Ann (Brendan) Lynam and Linda Siddle; and a special friend Karen Groves.

Pat is preceded in death by: her parents; brother Carl; sister Electa; niece

Barbara; and daughter Peggy Bender.

Visitation will be on Saturday, February 14, 2015 at Bundy-Law Funeral Home from 10:30 am to 12 pm with the service at 12 pm. “ Hi all.

Shan and I did not get to spend enough time with Aunt Alberta. But letters and cards, and the time we did enjoy with her, lets us know that she is safe at the right hand of Our Father, with Jesus. Her warm, loving compassion, and her strong faith and humor were always evident.

When I think of Aunt Alberta, it will be as always I have: with love and thankfulness, and with hope for Life.

*Love,
Dale*
