“ So sorry to learn of your loss... Mary and I remember Edna having the most colorful of language. She could tell stories that Mary and I recite lines from and laugh about to this day... no joke. Harold and Edna were quite the pair and where ever they went laughter was sure to follow. She will be sadly missed. (I can still hear my father's laughter at their antics.)

Our sympathies.

“ Tammy, Terry, and family:

I am so sorry for your loss. I hate that I will be unable to attend her services this weekend. Edna holds a special place in my heart. She was a pleasure to visit and I got to know her, not her disease or illness. We laughed together and cried together there at the end. Her life was long, but never long enough to those who loved her! My thoughts and prayers are with you in the days ahead. Blessings!
