“ There are so many memories but in every one of them Ed was laughing, joking, and always making everyone around him smile. He was a buddy to everyone and would do anything for anyone. I always picked on him for being a Brown's fan since I am a Steeler's fan, but just for you Ed, I have to give a "Go Browns!" Will miss you greatly.

“ When I 1st started bowling, I thought it was cos the girls where my friends, wrong they needed the handicap. I never bowled before, and believe me it showed. On the approach, Ed came up to me and told me I was doing it all wrong. To sit down and watch him, I was doing it right. He just got tired of waiting on me , and wanted me to get out of the way, so he could bowl.. LOL. R.I.P. my friend “ Debbie, and boys I am soo sorry for your loss.

I didn't know Ed real well but when I did see him at the bowling alley he was always laughing and making over those grandkids.. I told Shawn last night when I talked to him and he was shocked and said to tell you guys how sorry he was. He said he had a lot of good laughs with Ed and he felt horrible he won't be able to come to the funeral home but his thoughts will be there.
