“ Although I am "Eddie's" first cousin, I am sorry to say that I did not know him well as we lived far apart. I remember the farm that his brother Bill reminisces about, and I imagine that Ed's sweet, reserved nature may have come from growing up in that environment. When we had rare family encounters, it was evident to me that he had a love for family, which I admired. I am sorry that I didn't know my cousin better, but glad that he was happy in his faith and with his family. All my best to his wife and family and to his siblings - my cousins Kathie and Bill.

“ Ed, I'm really going to miss your smiling face and humble but magnetic personality. Even though we were over 8 years apart in age (I being the older), we great fun together as kids on the farm growing up. It was wonderful having 185 acres to roam around on, and raising sheep, rabbits, cattle, ponies, Dobermans and peacocks over the years only added to the magic of being a youth on a farm.

Now you will be forever young in the arms of our God, and the magic of our youth will be made to look pale in comparison to the joys you are now experiencing ... now and forever. God bless you (as I'm sure he is doing!).

Ed,

I remember the day you prayed to accept Christ as your Savior. You were there as I was explaining to Dad about how I had gotten saved. You told me you prayed because of my conversation with Dad.

See you in heaven some day!

*Your loving sister,
Kathie*

Ed had a humility, pleasantness, confidence, and dignity about him. I have fond memories of him at the 2007 Lenhart Family Reunion at Salt Fork Resort .. he & Karen, who have very good voices, led us in songs with their karaoke equipment. Ed cared very deeply about his family and friends. He loved God.
