“ I will miss Aunt Eileen's sense of humor. She sure loved to laugh! I still remember when my parents were driving me to college one time, we stopped at the house in Barberton and Aunt Eileen gave me a tiny spider plant to grow. It was the first one I ever had, and I kept it for years and years, and always thought of her whenever I saw it.

“ Still doesn't seem real that your gone. I know that it's gonna really hit me next time I go in the house and your not laying on the couch. I hope your at peace and I hope you are reunited with dad. I love you always mom. Rest In Peace
