“ Libby was one of the last surviving members of the church who walked from the old church at 7th and Turner to the "new" church in 1921 where it is today. She was a faithful member all of her life and was loved by the whole congregation. She will be missed. Thank you Libby for your friendship. God comfort your family.

“ Oh I just love this Lady. She has been a friend a very long time. When I would see her at the Senior Center she was always such a lovely person and so kind to everyone. I regret that I will not be there for her service but I will be thinking of Libby and her family. Prayers for the family and I thank God that I knew Libby as a friend.

To the family of Libby, just wants to send my sympathy. Libby was a very special person that I met when we went To weight watchers when it was at st Benedict's social hall. Then moved into maple heights and got to know her again. Enjoy seeing her and patty at the monthly dinner at the senior center.

My memories of special times with Aunt Lib span 70 years. There were fun times with her family at their Old RT 21 home place, reunions in Cambridge and New Concord, to services and special times at her beloved Ninth Street Methodist Church. My last event with Aunt Lib was at the church's ice cream social the summer she turned 100. While Pattie and Glenn were busy, Aunt Lib sat on her walker introducing me as she received their greetings. They told me their special thoughts of her. I marveled at how sharp Aunt Lib's memory was as she reminisced with them and talked about their families. She reveled in their attention as I'm sure she would today as many who love her share in this time of her home going. My heart is with each one of you, my cousins, as you say good-bye to your remarkable mother and grandmother. She loved and valued each of you.
